OPENING PRAYER – THE FOUNDER'S PRAYER

Father of us all,

We meet before Thee here today, one in the Brotherhood under Thy divine Fatherhood.

We come before Thee with hearts grateful and gladdened by the many blessings Thou hast granted us and thankful that our Movement has prospered as acceptable in Thy sight. In return we would lay on Thine altar as our humble thank-offering such sacrifice as we can make of self in service for others.

We ask that during our Communion here together we may, under Thy divine inspiration, gain a widened outlook, a clearer vision of all that lies open before us and of our opportunity. Thus may we go forth with strengthened faith to carry on our mission of heightening the ideals and powers of manhood, and of helping through closer understanding to bring about Thy happier rule of peace and goodwill upon earth.

Hear us O Father.

Amen

ALL THINGS BRIGHT AND BEAUTIFUL

All things Bright and Beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings.

All things Bright and Beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.

Matthew 22: 34-40 - The Greatest Commandment

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they came together, and one of them, a teacher of the Law, tried to trap him with a question. "Teacher", he asked, "which is the greatest commandment in the Law?"

Jesus answered, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the most important commandment. The second most important commandment is like it: 'Love your neighbour as you love yourself.' The whole Law of Moses and the teachings of the prophets depend on these two commandments."

YARN - BADEN-POWELL'S CHALLENGE

Brother Scouts, I ask you to make a solemn choice.

Differences exist between the peoples of the world in thought and sentiment, just as they do in language and physique. The war has taught us that if one nation tries to impose its particular will upon others, cruel reaction is bound to follow. The Jamboree has taught us that if we exercise mutual forbearance and give and take, then there is sympathy and harmony. If it be your will, let us go forth from here fully determined that we will develop among ourselves and our boys that comradeship, through the worldwide spirit of the Scout Brotherhood, so that we may help to develop peace and happiness in the world and goodwill among men.

Brother Scouts, will you join me in this endeavour?

I shall pass through this world but once. Any good therefore that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

KUMBAYA

Kumbaya, my Lord, kumbaya,
Kumbaya, my Lord, kumbaya,
Kumbaya, my Lord, kumbaya,
O Lord, Kumbaya.

Someone's laughing Lord, kumbaya..

Someone's crying Lord, kumbaya..

Someone's praying Lord, kumbaya..

We're all happy Lord, kumbaya..

Kum!

CLOSING PRAYER

Lord God, our Heavenly Father, we thank you for this opportunity of being together. We thank you that we come, bound together as Scouts through our Promise and Law, pledged to serve you, to serve our country, and to help other people. Thank you, Lord, for all the fun and happiness of this time together, for the challenges and the tough things we have to overcome. Thank you for the friendship of our mates, and the help and support of our leaders, especially all those who have done so much to organise this activity. Thank you, Lord, for Scouting and all the fun and excitement we have.

Amen.
