Free Basic Scuba Diving Course for Scouts – Friday 8th January 2010

23rd December 2009

Dear Scouts and Parents

We are very fortunate to have been offered an opportunity for the scouts to experience what scuba diving is about. This is a very basic course which is run in a swimming pool under strict supervision by the diving instructors from Scubaversity - www.scubaversity.com. They will teach the scouts the basics of how to use the scuba diving equipment, do buddy-buddy breathing and they may also be covering some of the requirements for the Snorkelling Interest Badge.

This activity will be held on the 8th of January 2010 before the scouting year has even started. We will leave from my house no. 7 Mimosa Street, Elspark at 10H00 and will be returning by about 17H00. Scouts must bring their own packed lunches and snacks and R 10.00 to cover petrol. You will need to bring your costumes and best maybe two towels plus don't forget the suntan lotion.

Please could you notify me if you will or will not be attending by the latest December 31st 2009, so that we can let the diving school know how many scouts will be attending.

Yours in Scouting

M. Waurich
